

This gracefully curved stained glass canopy is a contemporary re-creation of the famed ceiling of the Hotel Solvay in Brussels, Belgium by Art Nouveau architect Victor Horta. The illuminated ceiling features bronze rails and decorative scrolled brackets. Blown glass floral shades provide discrete lighting along an adjacent feature wall.

CANOPY CEILING

TIFFANY
STAINED GLASS, LTD.

© TSG 1992

www.tiffanystainedglass.com